$5 MILLION HOSPITAL FUNDS AVAILABLE TO MISSISSIPPI

WASHINGTON - Senator John Stennis said Mississippi would receive about $5,400,000 in federal funds for its Hill-Burton hospital construction under a bill reported today.

The Senate Appropriations Committee, of which Stennis is a key member, today approved the 1964 fiscal budget for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare which administers the hospital construction program, among its many other services.

Stennis said the HEW appropriation bill calls for $220,000,000 for its nationwide hospital construction program for 1964. These include hospitals, health centers, nursing homes, chronic disease facilities and rehabilitation centers.

Of that national figure, Mississippi's share is an estimated $5,400,000.

Under the Hill-Burton Hospital program, two-thirds of the construction cost is paid with federal funds and one-third is paid with local funds.

NASA News..

GAINESVILLE, Miss. - Following many months of planning and designing facilities, the construction phase of work at the NASA-Marshall Space Flight Center's Mississippi Test Operations is well underway.

The ground testing of large rocket engines and stages at this multi-million dollar facility is scheduled to begin in 1965, four years following NASA's selection of the site as a key installation supporting the manned space exploration program.

Nearly $16 million dollars worth of construction is now underway or will be initiated in the next few weeks. More than 300 persons are at work at the site - a number that will be increased to about 3,000 when construction is at its peak next year.

A huge rocket stand will soon rise in piney woods and cypress swamps previously known primarily as timber, fishing and hunting country. The space agency is erecting the test facility on 13,500 acres of purchased land in Hancock County, Miss., another 128,000 acres is being leased as a surrounding buffer zone.

Following is a summary of present MTO activity:

A 250-acre boat harbor where barges loaded with Saturn V moon rocket engines and stages will arrive for testing has already been cleared and a pilot channel has been cut for more than a mile into the harbor area from the East Pearl River.

The construction dock site has been cleared also and work is moving forward on the excavation of Southern Realty searched the CVO tournament from Trapani's Sunday the second week tournament taken from Trapani's two weeks.

Last week they lost to Heinike's in the play off. Southern Realty is the team trailing close to Trapani, who occupy the number one spot right now. If Trapani's can hold out for two more games, they will have the season all wrapped up, but they have to play two deadly foes, Southern Realty and CVO, and it's going to be tough for the Trap to do it. Play offs start next week and since these will be the last games of the season each team will put out all it has to win, and the games will provide plenty of action and excitement, so if you can make it, get out and see a few games.

The "Pogie Boat Fishers" have caused a little discussion among the county. Many in the Hancock County area. These boats have been operating off the shores of the county and may be one of the reasons that the sport fishing may be drifting to other places and why it's slackening and maybe even be stopped. These trawls pick up anything and everything that gets in its way and could be a very good reason why only a few fish are being caught. The only good this can be doing is that it's making profit for someone who is taking the fish to some other place to sell and Hancock County is getting nothing but wet feet.

Many local fishermen and visitors who come to the county have enjoyed the sport but if there isn't anything to fish for, the fishermen will probably quit or go somewhere else and the out of town visitors will go some place else and the county will lose money.

Something should be done and before it's too late.

Arise fishermen, it's time to come to the aid of your sport.

Sharks have come out of their hiding place this summer and seem to be pretty bad from reports. They seem to be mostly thick down Waveland way, so better take a little precaution in your water sports.

AUGUST 6 PRIMARY EXCLUSIVELY FOR MISSISSIPPI DEMOCRATS

"As the August 6th primary election approaches, we feel it our duty to again remind all Mississippians that this is in reality an exclusive primary of the Democratic Party of the State of Mississippi and that only Mississippi Democrats, who intend to support the nominees of the Mississippi Democratic Party in the general election in November, have a legal right to participate," said Tom M. Garrott, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Public Information Committee of the Mississippi State Democratic Executive Committee, in a statement released today.

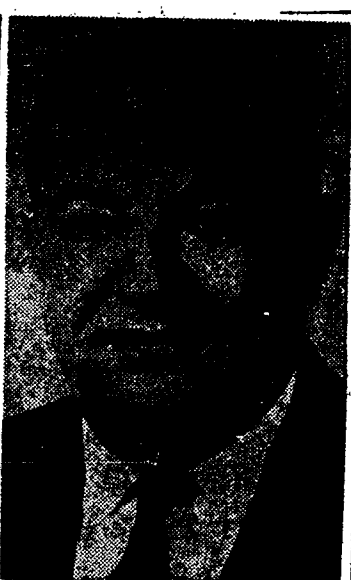

"Every candidate on the August 6th and August 27th ballots are qualified for the Democratic primaries with the proper Democratic committee and who offer for public office subject first to nomination by a majority of the Mississippi Democrats participating in such primaries," continued Mr. Garrott.

"Primary elections," added Mr. Garrott, "are held by political parties as a means of electing nominees to represent such parties in general elections. Our August Democratic primaries are for Mississippi Democrats exclusively and when a voter participates he is legally and morally bound, according to Mississippi law, to intend to support the Democratic nominees in the November general election."

Mr. Garrott emphasized his belief that "few Republicans will try to participate in our Democratic primaries." He added, "The real Republicans of Mississippi have always respected the law and have never tried to vote in Democratic primaries, and I feel confident that the 'new' Republicans in the state will also realize their legal and moral obligations to respect the August 6th and August 27th primaries of the Democratic Party of Mississippi voluntarily, and thereby eliminate the possibility for challenge."

$5 MILLION HOSPITAL FUNDS AVAILABLE TO MISSISSIPPI

WASHINGTON - Senator John Stennis said Mississippi would receive about $5,400,000 in federal funds for its Hill-Burton hospital construction under a bill reported today.

The Senate Appropriations Committee, of which Stennis is a key member, today approved the 1964 fiscal budget for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare which administers the hospital construction program, among its many other services.

Stennis said the HEW appropriation bill calls for $220,000,000 for its nationwide hospital construction program for 1964. These include hospitals, health centers, nursing homes, chronic disease facilities and rehabilitation centers.

Of that national figure, Mississippi's share is an estimated $5,400,000.

Under the Hill-Burton Hospital program, two-thirds of the construction cost is paid with federal funds and one-third is paid with local funds.

GAINESVILLE, Miss. - Following many months of planning and designing facilities, the construction phase of work at the NASA-Marshall Space Flight Center's Mississippi Test Operations is well underway.

The ground testing of large rocket engines and stages at this multi-million dollar facility is scheduled to begin in 1965, four years following NASA's selection of the site as a key installation supporting the manned space exploration program.

Nearly $16 million dollars worth of construction is now underway or will be initiated in the next few weeks. More than 300 persons are at work at the site - a number that will be increased to about 3,000 when construction is at its peak next year.

Huge rocket stands will soon rise in piney woods and cypress swamps previously known primarily as timber, fishing and hunting country. The space agency is erecting the test facility on 13,500 acres of purchased land in Hancock County, Miss., another 128,000 acres is being leased as a surrounding buffer zone.

Following is a summary of present MTO activity:

A 250-acre boat harbor where barges loaded with Saturn V moon rocket engines and stages will arrive for testing has already been cleared and a pilot channel has been cut for more than a mile into the harbor area from the East Pearl River.

The construction dock site has been cleared also and work is moving forward on the excavation of a lock.

Clearing has begun on an 850-acre Saturn V complex where four test positions to static fire the Saturn V S-IC - booster and S-II second stage will be built.

The first barge load of construction materials has pushed up the East Pearl River. It brought sheet steel from Pennsylvania.

Also the first train-load of materials to arrive on the 10 1/2 mile railroad recently completed by Southern Railroad has arrived at Gainesville. And the MTO, headed by William C. Fortune is building its work force on the site. Fortune arrived from the Marshall Center, Huntsville, Ala., to take charge of the on-site operations.

Among those making a good catch of green trout and perch Saturday were August Rauxet, Sr., Luke Elliott, and Joe Glover. The limit of both were caught.

According to a clipping in the Times-Picayune, fish in the University Lake at Baton Rouge are dying in large numbers, again.

During a severe drought last month, thousands of fish in the lake died from lack of oxygen. The recent deaths have been caused by rotting algae plants, Robert Lefleur, chief of the State Control Commission said.

Lefleur said the dying plants are using up oxygen instead of producing it as they usually do. He said this is Mother Nature's way of depopulating the fish, which were over populated.

The city-parish government spent some $500 last month to deoxygenize the area where the dead fish were piling up.

This is probably the same thing that happened in Ted Liman's lake here in the Bay about a year ago when dead fish had to be removed by the truck load.

A 40-day duck season for 1964 is under consideration.

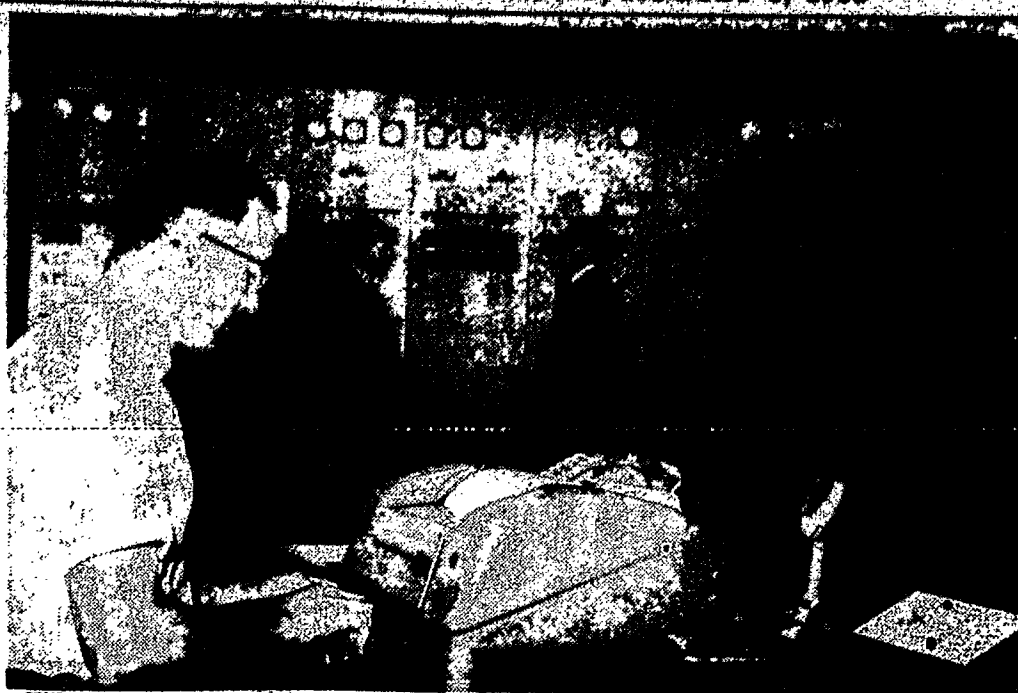

The Mississippi Flyway Council at its meeting in St. Louis adopted a resolution calling for a minimum duck season of 40 days with a four-duck daily bag and eight ducks in possession.

L. D. Young Jr., director of the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission reported that the resolution also calls for a bonus of four scaup (dos gris) daily.

The council also passed a resolution calling for a 70-day goose season with a daily bag and possession limit of five blue geese or five snow geese, or an aggregate of five of both species.

As far as the bonus goes, seems like the council could have given the hunters a better class of ducks.

CONTROL SYSTEM STRENGTHENS MPC ELECTRIC SERVICE

A $650,000 Control System, designed to strengthen the continuity of electric service throughout Southeast Mississippi, has been placed in operation by Mississippi Power Company, Gulfport, A. J. Watson Jr., president, announced today. Mr. Watson said that the Control System provides centralized control and supervision of the Company's entire 115,000 volt transmission system and will enable more efficient handling of both routine and emergency operating problems.

The 3,000 square-foot, ultra-modern Control Center building is located at the intersection of 22nd Avenue and 17th Street in Gulfport.

The Control Center is manned by System Coordinators on a 24-hour basis. R. V. Chambers, an electrical engineer in the Company's Transmission department, is in charge of the operation.

The spacious control room contains highly complex telemetering and remote control equipment which enables constant surveillance and control over the 115,000 volt system. A large diagram board illustrates a system connections, both normal and abnormal, and serves as an operating aid for system Coordinators. A series of colored lights on nearby control panels pinpoint conditions and positions of switches within the transmission substations being controlled.

On completion of the control network within a few weeks, switches in the 22 major substations located throughout the Company's service area will be remotely controlled from Gulfport. Telephone and teletype, leased from Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., combined with two-way radio facilities, provide reliable communications from the control center to Alabama Power Company, Southern Services, Inc., in Birmingham, Alabama, Gulf Power Company, at Pensacola, Florida, the Middle South Utilities dispatching office at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, all attended substations on the Company's system and the Company's three steam-electric generating plants.

Mr. Watson emphasized the special value of the control operation in handling emergency conditions which affect the Company's high-voltage transmission system. He explained that in many cases of transmission system trouble resulting in power outages, the new facilities make it possible to isolate a damaged line or piece of equipment and restore electric service to affected areas by remote control much sooner than has heretofore been possible.

"We feel that this new facility is indicative of the growth and progress of Southeast Mississippi," Mr. Watson said. "It is another example of the planning that Mississippi Power Company is constantly doing to assure plenty of low-cost electric power to help Mississippi keep pace with its promised growth and development."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffman and the kiddies were over Sunday. Being good sports they all love any kind of outdoor activities. Their favorite pastime is eating fish caught by their granddad. They catch their share of hard crabs.

Jos. "Cotton" Blaize was on a vacation here last week. Cotton is a past master at catching soft crabs and usually takes his share home.

Speaking of soft crabs, there are still a few around. Not as many as usual but enough to make a few sandwiches. Floundering is fairly good and will get better when the moon gets on the dark side.

Quite a few fishermen were on the Highway bridge Sunday. They were catching the usual run of white trout, speckles, ground mullets and croakers.

Eddie Blaize loves his fishing and crabbing and goes whenever he can. He knows how to get them too.

Nice Things Happen to Systematic Savers

Ever notice how it is with some families? They always seem to have the money to go off on the most exciting vacation trips, buy and furnish the nicest homes, give their children the best educations. Often the answer is not to be found in the size of their income, but in what they DO with it! By systematically saving part of it, they manage to have "what it takes" to enjoy the best things of life. If they save here (as many do) where their money earns interest.

Friday night games decided the first place winner in the softball league. Southern Realty came out on top and wasn't too much expected to win since they had to play both games one behind the other. Southern Realty and Trapani's were tied to play Reineke's Southern Realty won by a margin. Southern Realty was really on that night, after playing a hard game with the Trap (Trapani) and Southern Realty being the two best teams in the league) they went on to slaughter Reineke's 10-3. Southern Realty for that matter, Trapani's wasn't considered to win since whenever won the first game would have to go right back and play another, but Southern Realty came out with that determination that they have had all season to chop the Dirt Dobbies to pieces.

Reineke's just weren't able to keep up, even though they came into the game fresh and relaxed.

while Southern Realty were almost completely worn down because of the first game with Trapani's. Southern Realty took the show and held it throughout the game. It seems that Reineke's who have been working strictly on luck in the last few weeks lost their horses before the game.

I guess the main factor in this victory and defeat can be summed up by saying Southern Realty's very excellent playing of the game and Reineke's very poor playing of it.

Cassius the "Louisville Lip" Clay is on the move for a killing of the big Sonny Liston. There's a lot to be considered between the two and nothing you say is sure until after they meet, whenever that will be. Clay, number 1 contender for the championship is up and rising and a far stronger opponent than the twice beaten Patterson. Liston says Clay has a lot to learn and that he may be true but his record shows that it can't be all that much. Clay is a young boy who keeps himself in good shape. The only bad habits he has is a big mouth and over-confidence. If he lasts more than 5 rounds he will be the closest to getting the title from Liston.

Liston's a big man, you can't take that away from him, but I think he'll have all he can handle when he meets the "Lip". Liston concentrates on getting his man in the first few rounds, like Patterson, after that he won't be as strong, or as tough, that is if somebody can last that long and Clay should have no trouble, but it's doubtful.

Judging from the large crowd at the church fair at St. Clare's both Saturday and Sunday it was a great success. Many sportsmen were at the affair and seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The politicians were also there in full force.

Social Security

The publisher of a book which is being widely advertised as containing exclusive information and "tips" on how to get twice as much social security, states that his book has been cleared for security with the highest legal authority on the subject of Social Security benefit claims.

This book, Jerome H. Drane, social security district manager, said today, has not been cleared by the Social Security Administration.

Drane said that the book, which is offered for sale at prices ranging from $1.99 to $5.00, contains advice which if followed might place a person in a worse rather than a better financial position.

He said also that taking some of the "tips" the book offers might lead to extensive delay in the payments of social security benefits, because all of the facts would have to be investigated before social security benefits could be paid.

"Responsible publishers of privately published books and pamphlets about social security," Drane pointed out, "make sure that their materials are technically accurate and up to date. Also they do not try to promote sales with advertising materials indicating that the information is not available, or that they state or imply that the book they offer is the only one of its kind."

Drane advised persons in question as to the propriety of privately published books on social security to ask the security office about it.

He emphasized that there are many reliable privately published books about social security, and that the publisher of these books is performing a service to the public by helping the Social Security Administration to inform people about their rights and responsibilities under the social security law.
